Black History Month

Some of the children helped create a portrait for our Manchester United Partnership in celebration of Black History Month. The children were really proud of their creation.

Author in school

The children had a great time on Wednesday as they had the chance to work with the author Richard O'Neil. Mr O'Neil shared some of his books with the children and they took part in a storytelling workshop. All of the children had a great time and were enthralled by his storytelling.

Mr O'Neil later wrote to the school to say what a lovely time he had while at our school. It is great to hear visitors say lovely things about our school and our children.

'Thank you for inviting me to your fabulous school for such a fun and rewarding day. Your teaching staff and children are so welcoming, you feel like a friend as soon as you walk in and I could see very clearly that there is wonderful caring attitude towards the children from all of the staff.' Richard O'Neil

Children's Parliament

Congratulations to Isla Scott in Year 6, who was successful in being chosen for the first ever Children's Parliament. Isla was nominated by the school and was chosen from many entrants across the country. This is a great achievement and we are very proud of Isla. The debate took place at half term and we thank Isla for using her own time to represent our school.

Reminder!

Monday is Odd Sock Day. The children can come to school wearing Odd Socks to mark the start of Anti-Bullying Week.
